Program Summary

The Crim Fitness Foundation will have AmeriCorps members provide academic support, physical activities, conflict resolution, college preparation, and access to social services during and after school and in the summer for K-12 grade students while building capacity for community education in all 11 Flint Community Schools. At the end of the project period, the members will be responsible for addressing the root problems of underachievement, improving student academic performance (with a focus in literacy and STEM courses) and school attendance, and reducing student disciplinary incidents. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 440 local volunteers to provide learning activities in the schools and to ensure the sustainability of community education programs and projects. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
